

Eman Alofi

SWW 567-B

This assignment requires doing a unit tests which requires to test every and each function to make sure to works properly. Thus, you have to make sure all of these functions work properly. One of the most challenging or difficult part is that you have to know what makes the result right or wrong so your test will work properly.